

JOIN US

FOR A

30TH ANNIVERSARY ADVENTURE

Sign up today!

For more information on these outings and explorations,
visit our website:
www.sfct.org/insider-tours/

SANTA FE
CONSERVATION
TRUST

EST. 1993

info@sfct.org | www.sfct.org

NO COST Star Gazing Parties in the Galisteo Basin

Friday, April 14 • 6:30pm | Friday, September 15 • 6:15pm

Register for our free star gazing gatherings at our Conservation Homestead in the Galisteo Basin! Gaze through multiple telescopes, learn from astronomers and enjoy the natural surroundings. Food and drink are available for purchase on site. Bring your whole family for a fun evening! April 14 registration is limited and just opened, so sign up now! (September 15 registration opens on August 18)

Five Nights of Primitive Camping & Exploring at Bears Ears National Monument

April 30 – May 5 SOLD OUT

Meet us at Cedar Mesa in southeastern Utah or drive with us from Santa Fe. We bring the food and kitchen set up--you bring your camping gear. From our base camp, we'll go on four days of explorations to see the canyons, cultural sites and rock art of this amazing place! Led by Linda Siegle, a veteran Bears Ears tour guide. Limited to ten people.

Insider Geology Tour

April 27 • 9:00am

$150 includes lunch and half-day tour

Join us on this outing to explore the volcanic story behind Diablo Canyon and enjoy sweeping vistas of the Jemez Mountains and White Rock Canyon. Geologist Kirt Kempter will lead the group on a 2.5-mile hike that climbs 450 feet in elevation, providing overlooks down into Diablo Canyon. Registration opens March 27.

For more information: <https://sfct.org/insider-tours/>

NO COST Find the Way Community Cruise

May 20 • 10:00am

Explore Santa Fe's urban trails with SFCT Trails Program Manager, Tim Rogers, and find the best way around town on a bike. Meet at the Railyard Park Community Room.

Insider Archaeology Tour

July 8 • 9:00am

$150 includes lunch and half-day tour

Join us on this tour of Pueblo San Marcos with Archaeologist Tamara Stewart, Southwest Projects Director from The Archaeological Conservancy and Assistant Editor of American Archaeology. Pueblo San Marcos is one of the largest pre-Columbian sites in the American Southwest, established as a permanent archaeological preserve in southern Santa Fe County. Registration opens June 8.

For more information: <https://sfct.org/insider-tours/>

NO COST Tour de Mural Community Cruise

Fall 2023 • For more information www.sfct.org

Meet at the Railyard Park Community Room to bike with SFCT Trails Program Manager, Tim Rogers, to see 30 of Santa Fe's finest murals.

Insider Star Gazing Party in the Galisteo Basin

Friday, October 6 • 6:30 pm – 10 pm

$150 per person

Join us for a celebration of our dark skies at a private home on conserved land in the Galisteo Basin. Gaze through multiple telescopes, learn from astronomers and enjoy a catered dinner and beverages.