

MISSION

Santa Fe Conservation Trust partners with our community to keep northern New Mexico's living lands and people flourishing together. We protect culturally and environmentally significant landscapes, ignite people's passion for nature and enable the continual regeneration of our healthy place.

VISION

We envision a future where everyone in northern New Mexico cherishes nature and works to preserve it for this and future generations.